

Shoot Gatherings at THE PIG-at Combe

Nestled in Devon's Otter Valley and just 15 minutes from the South Coast, our secluded, mellow, honey-coloured Gem is set in 3,500 acres of lush Devonshire countryside. A Grade 1 listed Elizabethan manor house, THE PIG-at Combe has turned the traditional layout of a country hotel on its head!

The historic entrance Hall is now our huge bar; sink into one of our cosy sofas after a long day on the peg and get stuck into our extensive wine list, our Sommelier team are always on hand to help you choose the perfect tippie. There is plenty of room for you and your gang to kick off muddy boots and relax next to a roaring fire.

Stay

Choose from one of our 30 characterful rooms. Cosy up in the main house, stable yard or cottages. Each with beds so comfy you'll never want to leave! You can even enjoy a restorative treatment in one of our Potting Sheds treatment rooms that are tucked away the gardens.

Eat

We've got an obsessive commitment to home-grown and local produce: simple food done well, from our plot to your plate! At THE PIG-at Combe what we can't grow ourselves we source from local suppliers and producers, creating our 25-mile menu.

Have the ultimate kitchen table supper in our private Georgian Kitchen, the original kitchen of the house, complete with a working range. We will have a relaxed breakfast on the table ahead of early starts, with jugs of Bloody Mary on standby.
